Description

The Social List of Washington has been published by four generations of the same family since 1930, with a new edition released annually. The Green Book remains the preeminent list of Washington's society and arbiter of social precedence in the Metropolitan Area. Selection to the book is by invitation only and sales are limited to members and approved individuals and organizations. Members are those individuals who are in The Social List of Washington.

The 2021 Edition will print and ship by October 15, 2020.
